

Choate Hosp. Maternity to close

Choate Memorial Hospital, in Woburn, will close its Maternity Service on March 1, the Board of Trustees has voted. The vote was on recommendation of the hospital's Chief of Obstetrics.

Board Chairman William H. Flaherty stated that the hospital has tried to keep the Maternity Service open, despite losing money, for the hospital felt that it was the desire of the community serviced by the hospital. The intention to keep the maternity unit was reaffirmed by the board of trustees less than a year ago.

The number of births at the hospital declined precipitously in recent months. This has caused concern, both by the hospital and the Chief of Obstetrics, that the low volume could endanger the high standards of quality at the hospital.

Polls open 10 A.M. Saturday

The Candidates at the League of Women Voters: Tuesday evening. Held in the Wilmington Library, there were about fifty persons present to hear the candidates.

Next are David Dingle, Linda McMenimen and James Demos, candidates for the School Committee, and James Miceli, candidate for Selectman.

The Town Dump Chestnut Street objects to Site No. One

Five families from the south end of Chestnut Street, and one from the lower end of Main Street, fearing that the "Number One Site" (at the Woburn line) for a Wilmington dump might become such, attended what was to be a conference of selectmen and other officials, last Thursday evening, in the Public Library.

A large table had been prepared, with about 18 chairs around it, for the conference. It was never used.

Chairman Danny Gillis, of the selectmen acted with aplomb. Instead of a conference it became a public discussion - a discussion which lasted several hours, and which informed those present that the selectmen had no intention of putting a dump into an area which had private homes.

That was why they had ruled out the Number One Site, for the Warrant of the Town Meeting.

Now the Baldwin Apple belongs to the Butters

The BiCentennial Ball, which officially opened the Wilmington BiCentennial celebration last weekend, was brilliantly handled. The quarters reserved at Hannon Field were comfortable, and not too crowded, by the 200 persons present. There were Minutemen in uniform. There were Colonial Dames and Gentlemen. There were representatives of the Butters family. Congressman Paul Tsongas and State Rep. Fred F. Cain were among those who participated in the fun.

The big event of the evening was the presentation of replicas of the Baldwin Apple Monument to four members of the Butters family. Now, after nearly 100 years, the Butters family of Wilmington can rightfully claim ownership of the Baldwin Apple - at least of the monument.

It is a long, and perhaps tedious story, but the apple known as Baldwin was the Butters Apple, when it was discovered. It was the property of the Butters family, and there were more than the one tree which was discovered. It was a cultivated, not wild apple.

It was also called, by the "discoverer" the Pecker Apple Tree, because a woodpecker was working in the branches at the time of discovery. If that woodpecker had been in a cherry tree, that cherry tree could have been named a Pecker Cherry Tree.

But, because the "Pecker" Apple Tree had a monument, it came under the scrutiny of Leon Chemlen, sales manager for the Dynamics Research Corporation of Wilmington. Mr. Chemlen had to have a gimmick, to make him and his corporation remembered by the Washington Brass who place purchase orders for the services that the Wilmington firm has to sell.

One way is to have expensive hunting lodges, on the Chesapeake. Another is expensive dinners, with appropriate gifts. Both of these methods are frowned upon.

Leon Chemlen accomplishes the idea much more gracefully. He gives replicas of the Apple Monument, and makes the recipient an officer, with some grandiloquent titles, of the Order of the Pecker Apple Tree.

It serves his purpose really well. It also, last weekend, served to correct some history, corrections which were long overdue.

Three ladies and one man, all members of the family which had originated the so-called Baldwin Apple, were presented replicas of the monument, in a ceremony at the BiCentennial Ball.

Ruth Kenny, Gertrude Condrey, Anne Butters RN and Robert Butters, Wilmington Minuteman, are now bonafide owners of the Baldwin Apple Monument (the wording of which has been changed in the past few years in recognition of the role of the Butters family), thanks to Leon Chemlen and the Dynamics Research Corporation.

And Representative Paul Tsongas has a petition to Congress, asking that the Baldwin Apple Monument be made a National Monument. The petition was written, and presented to the Congressman by Ann (Nancy) Butters.

All's right with the world.

NANCY BUTTERS AND PAUL TSONGAS: With the petition to Congress that Wilmington's Baldwin Apple Monument be made a National Monument. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Butters, and it was she who wrote and prepared the petition.

The clinic will be for one day and will be available to any Wilmington resident with children between the ages of nine months and six years. The clinic hours will be from 10 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 4 p.m.

Lead poisoning can happen to any child by chewing on painted window sills or eating plaster from walls, or dirt contaminated with lead. Severe lead poisoning can cause permanent brain damage.

The first apple Tuesday

The third Tuesday in October, believe it or not, is Apple Tuesday. So a sharp eyed member of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce reports. He found out by reading an item in the Mourning Journal of Longview, Texas, dated October 22, 1975.

That newspaper reported on the significance of the third Tuesday of October being Apple Tuesday, and further reported that the first time Apple Tuesday was celebrated was in 1970, in Wilmington, Massachusetts.

Hoopsters in abbreviated slate

Only nine games were played last week in the Rec hoop league due to the unavailability of the high school gym. This week there will be another abbreviated slate as the town elections take over the gym on Saturday and Sunday. A brief summary of those games played follows:

Squirt girls: The Wrens crushed the winless Robins on Thurs. Jan. 29 to the tune of 24 - 12 to move within a game of the division leading Jays. Mary McNaughton led all scorers tossing in eight points for the Wrens. Jeanne Cariglio and Susan Gillespie chipped in with six each for the winners. Mary Linehan sparked the Robins offensive play with her hustling efforts.

Squirt boys: Last Thursday night the Hawks ran their unbeaten streak to six with a convincing 15 - 10 triumph over the Eagles. Todd Driscoll, the division's leading point getter, tossed in six, while Steve Hancox chipped in with three field goals. Eddie Olshaw took game high scoring honors scoring eight points for the Eagles.

Junior boys: In Saturday morning's twin bill at the high school, the Tigers won their second straight topping the winless Lions, 45 - 24 and the Broncos edged the Cougars, 40 - 38. Keith MacDonald and Jeff Lyman sparked Larry McGrath's Tigers tossing in 14 points each, while Jamie Boudreau added four. Carroll Gillespie and Jamie Shepard led the Lions' attack once again scoring 18 and six points respectively.

The Broncos jumped out to a 12 - 6 first quarter lead enroute to their upset win over the high flying Cougars. Glen Carlson poured in 32 points for the Broncos, while Shawn Kelly added six. Dave Driscoll and Bobby McCoy led the Cougars attack with 19 and 17 points respectively.

Senior girls: The division leading Rubys bested the Jades, 36 - 31 in the only game played in this loop last Saturday afternoon. Moe Baker led the Rubys, while Diane Cove, Brenda Minks and Debbie Bent added six each. Sandy Carlson took game high scoring honors hitting for 17 and Lisa Giroux chipped in with nine.

Senior boys: The Celtics and Lakers clinched playoff spots last Saturday evening as each club won its sixth game of the season against two losses, while the other four teams have lost five times each. In the opening contest, the up and down Bullets topped the Pistons, 64 - 58 behind the scoring of Pat Leonard (24), Dave Woods (16) and Steve Welch (11). Greg Wood fired in 21 for the slipping Pistons, while Tom Marden added 14.

In the Lakers 62 - 34 triumph over the Royals, it was a case of too much height as Dave Carrozzo tossed in 18 and Bill Liston's and Bobby Woods chipped in with 14 each. Scott Nolan led the Royals offense scoring 14. The Celtics overcame a 24 - 23 half time deficit to defeat the hustling Knicks, 53 - 48. Rich Mederios led the Celts with a 19 points and Mike Martin added 15, while Paul Burke hit for 14. Neil Wetzler came up with one of his better scoring efforts of the season tossing in 20 for the Knicks.

Larry Burke added 16 and Bob Grant chipped in with 10, but to no avail as the taller Celtics controlled the boards in the second half.

Men's division: Jera-Lyn broke open a close 42 - 40 half time lead game scoring 28 third period points for a commanding 70 - 48 lead enroute to a 93 - 75 triumph over the Lucky Ducks last Thursday night.

Mike Walsh took game high scoring honors pouring in 28 points for Jera-Lyn. Mark Nelso added 17 and Cliff Clark chipped in with 15 for Coach Newhouse's quintet. Paul Lyman tallied a seasonal high 23 and George Pratt added 22 for the Ducks.

Austin Prep sports roundup

Austin Prep fell into second place despite routing Lawrence 14 - 1 and battling to a 1 - 1 draw versus Wilmington this past week. The Cougars are now 12-1-1 in second slot in the Merrimack Valley Conference, behind Billerica.

Tom Carr and Phil Arnone led the way in the Lawrence trouncing. They each had three goals and an assist. Thom Lawler, Bob Donahue and John Smith (Wilmington) each had two goals and an assist, while John McDonald and Mike Ciampa had a goal and an assist. Steve Sheldon assisted on four goals.

The Cougars broke on top by scoring five times in the first period. Three tallies were registered in the middle session and six were added to the final score in the last stanza.

Lawrence's lone goal came in the second period when Gerry Pineault slipped one past the Austin goalie.

Coach Bishop used his entire squad in this one-sided contest. Many underclassmen were given the opportunity to gain valuable game experience.

On Saturday vs. Wilmington, the Cougars were unable to duplicate their scoring barrage. As a result, they had to settle for a tie; a tie that proved costly since it dropped them into second place, a half game behind Conference leader, Billerica.

Mark Sheldon gave Austin the lead by scoring in the first period unassisted.

However, the tenacious Wilmington Wildcats evened the count in the second period. Since neither team was able to find the cage in the final session, the contest ended in a draw. For Austin and Coach Bishop, it was a most frustrating afternoon. The Cougars are numerous scoring opportunities. They were unable to hit the target on clear breakaways and even on an open net. The Austin shots were errant and wide of the mark.

Credit must be given to Wilmington who battled throughout the game. Further the Wildcat goalie was sensational, making 27 saves.

This week Austin encounters Tewksbury and Dracut. The Cougars need two wins to qualify for State Tournament play.

Basketball

The roundball squad dropped two conference games this week to Billerica and Chelmsford.

At Billerica, the home team built up an early lead, outscoring the Cougars 16 - 6 in the first period. The third period again found the Willow Street boys scoring only five points, thus permitting Billerica to enjoy a 23 point lead at the start of the final eight minutes. In typical fashion Austin scored 24 points to their opponent's ten in the final period. However, it was not enough to overcome the Billerica lead.

Ted Coppinger with 16 points and Larry Comerford (Wilmington) with 15 were the only double figure scorers.

Last Saturday, highly touted Chelmsford invaded the Cougar lair. Chelmsford came to town sporting a 9 - 3 conference record, including a victory over Division II State Champion Andover.

The contest was played on almost even terms. Chelmsford managed to prevail by outscoring Austin in the second period and in the fourth. Austin was on even terms in the first period 10 - 10 and narrowed the margin by breaking on top 13 - 8 in the third period.

The four point margin of victory came in the final seconds of play. A slow-moving contest saw both teams employ zone defenses and use ball control offenses.

Larry Comerford with 12 points and Ted Coppinger with 11 were again top scorers. Rick Marcotte and Kurt Meyer each registered eight.

The Cougar's league record is now 3 - 9; overall 5 - 9. Ted Coppinger leads the team in scoring with 196 points, 71 field goals and 75 free throws. His free throw percentage is 82, 75 out of 91 attempts.

Wilmington youth hockey highlights

Mite A's

The Mite A's are back on a winning streak having won their last two games.

On January 24, the A's beat Somerville 1-0. The only goal of the game was scored by David Fuller, unassisted.

On January 2, the A's bested Billerica 2-0 in a well played hockey game. In the first period strong offensive play and good forechecking by David Buzzell, Jay McFadden, Donny Costantino and Kenny Richter kept the pressure on Billerica until 7:14 when Wilmington opened the scoring on a goal by David Richards assisted by Ralph Newhouse.

Fifty-nine seconds later Scott Poole scored assisted by Peter Oikle and David Lux. Solid defensive play was displayed by Tom Craig, Danny Kane, David Fuller and David Needham keeping the puck in the neutral zone for most of the second period.

In the third period Billerica put the pressure on Wilmington, but goalie Brian Surrence turned away all their attempts to post a well deserved shutout, his second in a row. Wilmington plays Westford Saturday at 10 a.m.

Blades-Gulls

Both teams remained scoreless through two periods. With less than three minutes to go Craig Ballerino put in the only goal of the game.

Defenseman Todd Boudreau, Greg Howard, Bobby Boudreau and Eric Ouellette played great in front of goalie Kevin Sutton who picked up the shutout.

The Gulls took their second loss of the season to the same team. The fine playing of Martin Laquidara, Chris Cogar, Chris Kane and Chris Athanasia held the Blades until the end of the period.

Buckaroos-Blazers

The Buckaroos defeated the Blazers 4-1.

The only goal for the Blazers was from Glen Allard playing in his last game for Wilmington. He will now be living in Conn. The boys on the Blazers gave Glen a stick with all their names on it. Good luck Glenn.

Squirt B's

Outshooting Peabody 25-6, the B's rolled on to a 4-2 victory. Harry Cunningham opened the scoring early in the first period assisted by Jim Smith and Eric Berger. Before the first period ended, however, the B's were trailing 2-1.

In the second frame the B's were to go ahead for good on goals by Dennis Moran, assisted by Sean Lowney, and the game winner by Brian MacLellan, unassisted. Jim Smith scored the insurance goal in the third frame assisted by Eric Berger and Harry Cunningham.

On January 18, the B's faced South Boston in a tough contest and defeated Southie 3-2. Harry Cunningham scored the opening goal late in the first frame to put the B's ahead 1-0. The assist went to Jim Smith.

Southie quickly tied the score as the second period opened, but before the frame ended Sean Lowney put the B's ahead 2-1. Assists went to Corey Rogers and Dennis Moran.

South Boston applied the pressure in the third period and tied the game. After that goal Tony Aresco turned back all of Southie's shots for the remainder of the game. With 48 seconds left, Jim Smith scored the game winner assisted by Eric Berger and Harry Cunningham.

Defense in the game was outstanding on the playing of Doug Coolbirth, Lance Sullivan, Kevin Robinson, Stea Larson and especially Joe Cornish who acted as a stone wall on the blue line.

Pee Wee A

Last Thursday, Tewksbury eliminated the A's from a tournament as they beat them 5-0. In regular league competition Wilmington had beaten them 4-0 but this time could not put it together, managing only 12 shots to 17.

On Feb. 1, Nashua was the opponent at Tyngsboro as the A's skated to a 4-1 victory. For the third week in a row the opponents scored first, this time at 8:59 of the first period. At 11:05 of the second period Keith Ford tied it at 1-1 assisted by Gordon Smith. Late in the period Frank DeVita scored the game winner assisted by Mark LaLiberte. Two more goals in the third period iced the game. Keith Ford from Doug Wiber g at 10:46 and finally Gordon Smith from David Kidd. The Pee Wee B's goalies Ridler and Lux did an excellent job playing in their second game of the day. Benny Sciozaro, who has been skating to fill the gap left by injuries to several players, deserves a hand for his hustle and play making. Benny is an excellent addition to any team.

Next game at Wilmington, Saturday Feb. 7 at 6:10 p.m., vs. Reading.

Bantam A

Superb goal tending by both net minders featured a Beverly Farms 1 to nothing win over luckless Wilmington last Thursday. The only score came with a Wilmington player in the penalty box, and resulted in a Beverly Farms pass-out from behind the net that ricocheted off the right leg of the Wilmington goaltender, David Gordon with eight minutes remaining in the game. Gordon however, was outstanding in the net, kicking out 24 shots, many on the spectacular side.

Unfortunately his performance was matched by Beverly Farms netminder, who made 23 saves at the other end. Sparkling on defense for Wilmington were defensemen David Ballou, Joe Velozo, Brian McNamara and David LaLiberte. Next game Thursday, Feb. 5 vs. Billerica at 8:50 p.m.

On Sunday, Feb. 1, Wilmington lost to Billerica in the finals of the Department of Natural Resources

Seventh Annual Youth Hockey Tournament held in Lowell by a score of 6-1. The only goal coming off the stick of Steve Mickle with assists to Dennis Foley and Dave Ballou.

Midget A's

On Sunday, Feb. 1, the Wilmington Midget A's met rival Tewksbury.

In the first period, Tewksbury scored three times, two of the goals coming seven seconds apart, before Wilmington's Steve Pellerin stick handled around two Tewksbury defenders and scored an unassisted goal.

Tewksbury broke the game wide open in the penalty-ridden second period, with three unanswered goals. In the closing seconds, Wilmington's Jim Phillips, assisted by Dick Gunn and Steve Pellerin, scored Wilmington's second goal of the night, ending the period with a score Tewksbury 6, Wilmington 2.

In the third period, the hard feelings that had been building through the first two periods came to a head. The ferretes, sensing loss of controll, called the game with nine minutes still remaining. Tewksbury was awarded the win, 6-2.

Intramurals

Squirts

The Americans beat the Aces 5-2 last Thursday. Bill Barrett of the American team had a hat trick, scoring two of his goals unassisted and the other assisted by Larry Berrigan.

Steve McEvoy assisted by Darren Colarusso scored the fourth American goal and the last goal came from Peter Gentile with the assist going once again to Darren Colarusso.

Robbie Ranberg was great in net and David Boudreau and Alan Sunnerberg played a good game.

Ned Whitney scored both the Ace goals - one unassisted and once assisted by Rick Finlay.

Lenny Howard played an outstanding game and extra effort also came from Roger Quandt.

The Braves won over the Bears by the tune of 6-1 in the second game of the evening. A break down of the Braves scoring follows - two goals for Dean Athanasia, one unassisted and one assisted by Eric Marshall; two goals for Charlie Athanasia with the assistance of Steve Raso and Steve Marranzini; one goal for Jeff Marshall assisted by Charlie Athanasia; and one goal for Tom McHugh with the assist going to Danny Ugolini.

A good game came from Tom McHugh and the Marshall brothers, Eric and Jeff.

The Bears' goal came from the stick of Ray Taylor assisted by Jerry O'Reilly.

Gregg Roberts, Steve Stokes and Keith O'Donoghue played a good game.

Pee Wee

The Blues beat the Canucks Saturday night to a 5-3 game. First goal scored for the Blues was

Beavers, 6-Big W, 4

The Beavers fired in four goals in a span of four minutes in the second period to overtake a 2-1 Big W lead and held on to gain a 6-4 decision. Dale Mather was the big offensive star as he scored a three goal hat trick to lead the Beavers. Four individual scorers combined for the Big W scores.

Knights, 6-Moon Units, 1

Don O'Connell scored the opening goal for the Moon Units in the first 47 seconds of the game, but that was all that Knights goalie Leo O'Connell allowed as he shutout the Units for the remainder of the game. Paul DeCoux led the Knights offensively with a pair of goals.

Jets, 4-Blues, 1

Joe Gedraitis and Brian Harvey combined for a late second period score to break a 1-1 tie and add another in the third period as the Jets stopped the Blues. Bill Ryar had the sole Blues goal.

Jets, 3-Knights, 2

Jimmy Ray scored the first two goals for the Jets and Steve Neal fired in the next three as they completely overran the Knights. Neal, the league leading scorer, ended up with five goals for his night's work while his brother Wally had some fine saves in the nets for the Jets.

Big W, 2-Blues, 0

In a battle of goaltenders, the Big W's Jim Newhouse prevailed over the Blue's Lee Black as he handled everything shot at him flawlessly to backbone his undermanned team to the win over the Blues. Peter Pellerin and Ed Buckley fired in single markers in the second period.

Beavers, 5-Moon Units, 2

Jim Bransfield had a pair of first period goals as the Beavers scored four times in the period to take a lead they never lost. Charlie Miller, John Carlino and Merrill MacInnis had solo markers for the Beavers while Tony Vieira and Bill Swan scored the Moon Unit goals.

In a non-league game last Saturday afternoon the girls traveled to Brookline and ran into a hot goal tender as the Chiefs blanked the home team.

Dracula endangers WHS

A mysterious illness has set its teeth into helpless victims at Wilmington High School. The illness, not yet known to medicine is said to be a form of anemia. The only conflicting evidence which may rule out anemia is the victims have two small circular wounds on the neck, near the jugular vein. There have been over five cases reported, three of which proved to be false and don't "count."

A specialist has been called in, in this grave situation. Dr. Van Helsing, an occult specialist has diagnosed this strange phenomina right off the "bat." He recommends you carry a crucifix and a wooden stake and call him in the "mourning."

The Wilmington High Drama Club presents: "Dracula," a bloody mess. Members of the WHS Drama Club have been re-"hearsing" for a couple of weeks now in preparation for their first production of the year, "Dracula," under the direction of Ms. Lucy Stille.

It would be curtains when the sun goes down this Friday and Saturday evenings, February 6 and 7 at 7:30.

Town Dump

From Fr. Page

There were equally good reasons against the other sites, too. The Number Two site is adjacent to the "lost colony" and the North Reading line. There were objections to that site, too, because it is only half a mile from the main well field.

Attorney Alan Altman described the conditions, from his position. He described Wilmington as being in its present condition where the Attorney General is threatening to close down the present dump because of the Middleton Dump, and the long fire there.

Selectman Aldo Caira gave Altman credit for carrying the town's cause well, in the A.G. office.

But the star of the show was Selectman James Miceli. Like the other officials he had come to participate in a conference. Instead he got a ready-made "coffee-hour" - Mr. Miceli being a candidate for re-election, Saturday.

It was after the discussion had gone for over an hour - you couldn't have a dump here, you couldn't have a dump there - neighbors, water supplies, etc. that Mr. Miceli stood up.

He had been asking questions, he said and he had been told of a site for a dump which was a mile from the Wilmington water supplies, had no neighbors, had a good supply of gravel, and was town owned.

Miceli pointed to town owned land, forty or fifty acres, north of Route 125, which is a part, officially, of the Wilmington Water Shed. The construction of Route 125 had cut off this land from the Water Department.

There, Mr. Miceli said, may be the answer to the problem. At the westerly end of the town land one can have a dump. Excavate gravel first, and sell it, to pay for the costs, and then use the area for a few years until a permanent answer is found. The entrance can be through the industrially zoned land, in North Wilmington, adjacent to Andover Street.

Miceli ended up with a final flourish. The only neighbor, he said, is Joe Courtney (Attorney Joseph Courtney) "and I don't give a damn about him!"

Clarence Spinazola of Woburn, owner of the present dump, was one of those present. He was induced to speak, after it had been reported that a year ago his price was fixing the dump was a three year contract at $150 thousand a year.

Bits & Pieces

There were eight

When a Woburn Street School student telephoned to challenge her classmates to match her donation to the Cerebral Palsy Telethon last week, she discovered that one of her teachers was serving the cause answering phone calls. When Karen Spahl of Draper Drive made her call, she was told that Martha Stroh, a sixth grade teacher at Woburn Street was working there.

Further investigation showed that seven other members of Wilmington's School Department were also busily answering telephones at Boston's Government Center.

Those serving besides Miss Stroh included: Carol Ferddette, resource room teacher at the Boutwell School; Cleo Ferddette, special education director; Mary Richards of the Boutwell School; Kim Souder, speech instructor; Jean Krueper, learning disabilities tutor; Lynda Hague, also a learning disabilities instructor; and Claudia Costello, resource room teacher at the Shawsheen School.

They're home
Michael DiNunzio, Jr. of 15 Marjorie Road, Wilmington is recuperating at home following emergency surgery at Winchester Hospital.

Clara Linde of Deming Way has been released from Winchester Hospital last week.

Spinazola protested that the figures were a year old, and he wasn't prepared to give any new ones. Finally he left the hall.

It seemed that no official had been talking with Mr. Spinazola for a year - except Jim Miceli. Miceli said he had been talking with Spinazola only a few days ago, and possibly there could be some suitable arrangements made.

WITH THE AID OF A MAP: Selectman Miceli shows where a dump could be, on town owned land and north of Route 125

New Books at the Wilmington Library

A Home is Not a Home by Janet Tulloch. Through the story of one of the nursing homes, the author illuminates all the disquieting aspects of the institution from the unpalatable food to the rampant thievery.

Andrey Rose by Frank DeFelitta. A stranger whose daughter was killed in an auto accident believes he has found her reincarnated in 10-year-old Ivy Templeton and comes to take her home. A real spellbinder filled with compelling and dramatic scenes.

Odds on Miss Seeton by Heron Carvic. The indomitable Miss Seeton is back in another of her forays against the world of evil. She's involved with the police and with the Kenharding family in a wild romp through the horseracing, gambling casinos and syndicate scene.

Thornton Wilder by Richard H. Goldstone. This is an entertaining life story as well as an invaluable account of a great American author. Sympathetic yet objective, and always revealing, it is a major literary biography.

Off Camera by Leonard Probst. Leonard Probst, one of New York's most astute critics, has persuaded some of the theatrical world's most elusive stars to sit down with him for forthright talks on what it is like to live and work under the spotlight. The result is a revealing account of the problems of identity stars must face.

My Heart Sours by Chief Dan George. Chief George tells of his early childhood in Vancouver, British Columbia, and how it shaped his attitude toward life and living. There are many beautiful quotes, poems, and sketches throughout the book.

The competition will include: basketball four shooting, basketball, ping pong, chess, checkers, ice skating races, one on one goal scoring (gym hockey), and sledging races.

Presentation of awards will take place Friday afternoon at the North after movies are shown.
